

Vanda group is an exhibition servicing company with 20 years experiences in booths construction and interior design , registered in Tehran, Iran and a member of exhibition stand builders association of Tehran with A grade.

We are a (group company) including several groups of experts which made us capable to execute and or design and or consultant for all kinds of exhibitions in Iran, Turkey, Arbil and Dubai:

Vanda group is one of the main contractors in Iran that has its own construction team that we can supervise on stand building directly from the first step and it makes us special in custom design and stand building for exhibitions since we were known as the best booths constructioner in 2013 , 2014 and 2015.

We manage your exhibition project from the first to the end based on your concept through our knowledge, experience and expert team, however we will lead your ideas to the best ones by our consultants and design team. Because we believe that having a professional team together with experiences are the key to execute a successful both.

Vanda group has a complete and knowledgeable team provide all necessities including project management, process control, servicing, construction for all fields of clients such as institutions, commercial, industries, oil& gas and petrochemicals, constructions, food and agricultures,... our group provide clients:

1. The construction (construct) based on MDF or Laminated cheapboard .

2. Executing modular system based on Octanorm or Maxima standard.

3. Graphic design & printing including advising for the kind of design, producing and printing, providing catalog, bags, ...

4. Providing promotional gifts.
5. Holding up seminars and events.
6. Providing rental furnitures.
7. Providing A.V equipment.
8. Lighting
9. All related servicing for participating in any exhibition from the registry team to the end of the exhibition including :
  - executing and following up client's registry procedure
  - Providing a photography team, scheduling and planning for visiting exhibitions, planning meetings with participated companies for clients.

Vanda group creates an international department as “OPT” to assist and give services to our international clients so we can guarantee our qualified servicing to our clients with all nationalities. Therefore our clients are assured of our expertise, knowledge, experience and management capabilities to under take projects and executing them on time and satisfyingly and supporting our clients.